My dearest Mother,

Last night I received two registered letters, one from you and the other from Daddy. It was with great joy that I read both letters and I dreamed about Daddy last night after reading his letter. I also received the roll of Partit Records that you mailed me. At present time I have my hands full but am getting along with it very well. Hope I can stay on the line all the time and not have to go to any other work. Enclosed I am sending a photograph of myself and my dog out in March.

Much love to you, Lucia, Dad.
and the Boys.
